

Menucha Magic

What is it?

Menucha is the place where you spend a weekend inspired by creative energy and kindred spirits.

Menucha is where the beauty of the natural setting, the ambience of the lodge, the wonderful meals prepared for you feed your creativity.

Menucha is where you can work uninterrupted for a whole weekend on a book, a class project, an alphabet you never mastered, or try out new ideas shared by fellow calligraphers. Lots of sharing!!! There is no agenda, no workshop pressure, just time to create and renew.

The Portland Society for Calligraphy has reserved the weekend of February 24-26, 2012. Visit the Menucha web page for information about our weekend, special diets, directions and photos or call Susan Cole at 360 694 4849.

The cost for this amazing Friday through Sunday experience is only $175. for lodging and six delicious meals. You will share a three person room (with bath). There are limited, first come, opportunities for a semi-private room (extra $25.) or private room (extra $45.) There are three partial scholarships available.

*****The $175. Non-refundable fee is due November 30, 2011. Please enclose a check to Portland Society for Calligraphy and mail to:
